

I support Wisconsin's no-call list and the strength of it. Our lawmakers listened to the people and did as we wanted. At what point do we finally say "ENOUGH"! People have put their names on a no-call list and that is exactly what it means - no calling from telemarketers. It is time that Federal lawmakers listen to the majority, the people, not big business.